Adventure At Shanghai, China

Finland Honors Capital, Labor

Both sides of the capitalistic fence will receive recognition this year in Finland — the employer and the laboring man. On April 15 will come a 30 markkas commern honoring the 50th anniversary of the trade union movement in the country sponsored by the Central Federation of Finnish Trade Unions.

The design has three arms grasping hammers and a laurel branch. Included is the wording "Työn kunniaksi - Till arbetets ära" (in honor of work).

On September 27 the 50th anniversary of the Central Federation of Finnish Employers will occur and for the occasion a commern with a value of 20mk will be issued. The design has a cog wheel with a panorama of industrial buildings, shipping, and rail transportation.

Both designs are the work of Aarne Karjalainen, the former adapted from a sketch by the artist Olof Eriksson. B. Ekholm did the engraving of the 30mk and Mr. Karjalainen the 20mk. Printing will amount to 2,000,000 copies of each.

DAY OF THE POSTAGE STAMP. On March 16 France issued a 12fr plus 3fr semipostal for the annual recognition of the hobby of philately. It also pays tribute to the Maritime Postal Service. In the design of this brown and black stamp is shown a galley propelled by oars in the hands of slaves, and sails. The cover was sent by Pierre A. Cubells, 2 Rue des Gravières, Soissons (Aisne), France.

A Consideration Of Factors Involved In The Sponsoring Of Cacheted Covers By Groups

Karl W. Scheufler

Is it profitable for a Stamp Club to sponsor a cachet in connection with an exhibition, or for some historical reason? Stamp magazines frequently carry notices of the sponsorship of such cachets. Do the sponsors reap a harvest in doing this? One stamp magazine insists that it will not carry as a news item, the announcement of any cachet costing more than 10c each. This charge must cover the cost of the prepared envelope, the postage stamp, and all service charges. The publishers of that paper believe that when the charge is higher than 10c, the sponsorship of the cachet leaves the realm of a service to the public, and enters the realm of a business venture.

Business ventures, you see, must be carried as a paid advertisement, and not as a news item. Linn's Weekly does not have such a rule. Ought this publication to have such a rule?

Questions do arise when the sponsorship of a cachet is contemplated. At what point does a cachet cease to be a service to the public and become a financial venture? How widely is this service given by stamp clubs, or by individuals, or by Scout Troops, and the like? How widely is this service used by the stamp fraternity? Is it possible to make money on such a venture? Or to lose money? Is interest in such cachets increasing or waning? Against the background of the experience of the Columbus Philatelic Club, we present a few observations on this subject.

For many years the Columbus, Ohio Philatelic Club has sponsored a cachet in connection with their annual exhibition and bourse, held in February or March. Previous to 1957 a charge of 15c was made for each cover. This included the cost of the envelope, the stamps, (Continued on page 23)

M. S. Brainard

London's famed Petticoat Lane and Caledonian Market couldn't even hold a candle to the under-the-table operations in Shanghai in the "good old days." One who was wise to the ways of Nantao (another city, and this distinctly Chinese) within the huge metropolis on the banks of the Whangpo could, with circumspect and patience, have an order filled ranging all the way from disappearance of an undesired human being down to acquiring a horde of dollars manufactured from compressed cigarette tinsel.

The busiest of the vendors were those unfortunate White Russians who found sanctuary, of whatever sorts, in the by-ways of a Chinese village more desirable than what might be dealt them by the "Reds." As traders, they were, perforce, required to underbid their celestial neighbors and there was a strata of these folk who weren't at all persnickety as to how they acquired the essentials of their livelihood.

If one yearned for a specific type of merchandise, all one needed to do was make contact with some refugee, make his wants known, and then bide his time. The contact would adjourn to his kind, pass word about that such and such an item might be exchanged for cash and when this material was available, word would be passed back to the potential customer.

In the interim it is quite possible the involved mechanics might be frowned upon in good society but —
Now this isn't a yarn or a hypothetical case but illustrates how things were actually worked, in the "good old days."

Jimmy Jones (just one of the hundreds of Jimmy Joneses-not YOU), was a third engineer on a freighter plying the Pacific from stateside to China, with Shanghai a stopping place. Jimmy was a stamp collector. He was also moderately well informed as to the potentialities of the marts of the orient.

When tied up to a buoy in the Whangpo, off Shanghai's Bund, ships' watchmen were employed and, the Russkies having underbid the natives, they usually had the job and the job could, through devious channels, be a highly desirable one for a degraded general, admiral, or duke, which, undoubtedly some of them were as they were definitely not mujicks.

One of the devious channels was as a contact for desired materials. Mention to one of these gents of some item one would like to acquire would, in all probability, bring results even if it was a commodity not handily come by anywhere.

Jimmy, through a chinese interpreter (fortunately or unfortunately) inquired of one of these gents into the possibility of having access to negotiations for a stamp collection. He was assured his plea would be taken under consideration. The next day, in true oriental custom, his interest and potential appreciation of services was sealed by the Russky presenting him with a carton of fine Russian cigarettes and the interpreter surreptitiously leaving a packet of fine rose tea in his state room.

As the ship was to discharge and load in North China and return to Shanghai to complete loading there was an element of time which would help matters. Both the interpreter and the watchman told Jimmy they would have their wares ready for his consideration when the ship returned to the Whangpo.

The native interpreter was the first to contact Jimmy on his return and the tete-a-tete resulted in Jimmy that evening rickshawing with the interpreter into the narrow confines of Nantao, rarely explored by his kind. In a dingy den's back room, the guide introduced him to a fellow-countryman who produced THE GOODS—a very wonderful selection of old China and Treaty Ports, on and off cover. To make what could otherwise be strung out into a deal of thrilling suspense, Jimmy negotiated for same to be delivered shipside next day and duly paid for after Jimmy had carefully appraised the lot to assure himself there'd been no items mislaid in transit.

And on that following day up came the watchman's chum, this one speaking what passed for understandable English, notifying Jimmy of wares of interest to be viewed that evening at the White (Continued on page 14)

Monaco's Princess
Caroline Set Of Nine

From Monaco on May 11 will come another set of stamps which should find great interest in this country. It will note the birth of Princess Caroline to Prince Rainier and Princess Grace, the ruling family of the tiny country.

Total value will amount to 206 francs which will be distributed over nine denominations of 1, 2, 3, 5, 15, 25, 30, 50 and 75fr.

Collectors will not be able to purchase mint sets or have first day covers serviced since Monaco does not have a philatelic service.

Byodoin Temple
Design Re-Issued

The revised design of a previously issued stamp was released in Japan on March 19. It is the 24 yen of 1950, Scott type A274, which appeared in the form of a souvenir sheet with a single copy, to mark Stamp Week.

This time it is in a dark purple where before it came in a deep ultramarine. Shown is the Hoodo (Phoenix Hall) of the Byodo-in-Temple. The first day coincided with celebrations marking the completion of the hall's reconstruction.

As before this one is also produced from engraved plates. However, it is printed in panes of fifty subjects (5x10). Teizo Kasori is the designer and Shichizo Kurihara the engraver.

The two stamps are easily told apart because the most recent has the numeral of value without the "00".

A cover was received from R.

Caspary Locals,
Carriers $165G's

The Alfred H. Caspary United States Carriers and Locals held the philatelic limelight when offered at auction by H. R. Harmer, Inc. 6 W. 48th St., New York City March 18 through 21. The total of $165,035 was 15% above pre-auction estimates.

This was the eighth of the sixteen sales. The first was held on November 15, 1955 and when the final auction is conducted on October 31, 1958 a total of $3,000,000 is a strong possibility.

The first two days of the auction were devoted to the Carriers stamps. The most outstanding item was a "Beckman's City Post" tied on cover with a U.S. 3c. This is the only known copy of this stamp but even the auctioneers, who by now are used to "Caspary prices", must have been astounded when it sold to Ezra Cole at $11,000. This is the first occasion a Carrier has reached "five figures".

Other Carrier prices of special interest were a slightly thinned copy of the 1851 Franklin 1c dull blue on rose with original gum which brought $420 against $100 catalogue price; Charleston "Honour's Penny Post Paid" 2c black on bluish used on cover with U.S. 3c red, $400 (cat. $250); two unused copies of "Martins City Post" of 1858 $1200 and $1500 respectively; the same design but "Steinmeyers City Post" 2c black on bluish, unused, $1100. A Philadelphia 1c black on rose (Scott 7LB1) on small letter went for $460 ($150).

Pony Express covers, of which there were eleven, brought a lot of action. One of the most beautiful was a Patriotic bearing the

Are Stamp Dealers Necessary?

Curiously enough I have had that question brought to my attention at various times in past years. Some collectors think that they could do better if they tried to buy direct from Foreign Post Offices. Others hold that prices are high because there are dealers. Both these thoughts are so out of order that I can not understand how such people think. I have replied to such inquiries in the past and right now I find one of the best articles on this subject that I have ever read. It covers the entire field of organized Philately in a very thorough manner and should be read and thought over by every collector.

This article was printed in the March number of the International Stamp News which is the house organ of the J. & H. Stolow Company of New York City. It is so well explained, so thorough, that every collector should read it. While the International Stamp News does have a very large circulation we feel that the article is one that should be read by every collector and we are therefore taking the liberty of reprinting it herewith. Here it is, read it and study it carefully.

"ARE STAMP DEALERS NECESSARY?" We listened with amusement when a friend of ours asked this question of collectors in his local club and were astonished to hear less than half immediately answer 'yes'.

"In few fields, it seems, does the consumer feel so strongly that the professional is not needed, believing that things would be better for their pocketbooks were this 'middle-man' eliminated!"

"A more experienced philatelist, of course, experienced in philately or in general business, knows that just the opposite is true."

"If there were no basic professional dealer market there would be no basic continuing price levels in stamps, or organized sources of supply."

"Individuals would then trade or sell amongst themselves, locally, and prices might be pennies in one market and hundreds of dollars in the other, relatively speaking, and stamps would have such a thin market that no one would have the confidence to regularly invest large sums. As it is now, and has been for almost a century, anyone can buy stamps anywhere, and find a market of some sort almost anywhere else."

"In depressions and recessions over the past hundred years stamps have been little affected compared to other things. Numerous professionals keep records of individual philatelists who need items, and like a broker are ready to offer these at especially advantageous prices, if available, to provide a continual cushion underneath the market."

"Or, during such times, the knowledgeable dealers find a welcome opportunity to build up stocks of stamps which they know are rare, and which they know will produce handsome profits when the temporary economic situation no longer exists. It is their business."

"Great stamp shows such as Fipec were only possible because dealers guaranteed the show financially. No philatelic publication could exist without professional support, as advertising is the basis of the revenue of philatelic magazines as well as others. And if there were no philatelic publications all philately would suffer immeasurably."

"Only large wholesalers could make possible the distribution of the new stamp issues of the world at such low percentages over cost. The correspondence, continuing international connections, constant contact with the money markets, which enable new issues to be secured from all parts of the world, and to be distributed so close to the face value, could only be made possible by skilled professionals."

"In many cases new issues are available at retail in the U. S. at less than what it would cost to buy them in official currency in the post office of origin."

"Figure out the extra costs to a collector (figuring his time at nothing) should he decide to buy a 25c or 75c set in a foreign country. These would include a bank transfer or money order, a registered letter written in a foreign language, and prepaid return postage. And then the set would often come back damaged, incomplete or six months late, or not at all if his order arrived after the first day of sale and it was a good issue that sold out immediately."

"Stamp dealers enjoy their work and deal in a commodity which has a permanent value, unlike merchants in other fields where there is a race against time for the maintenance of price. Stamp dealers are in the fortunate position of being able to reserve the normal procedure of marking down merchandise as time passes."

"Perhaps the fact that stamp dealing is basically so sound, and the enjoyment which dealers apparently get out of their business, create an unconscious reaction of envy."

"But the fact that dealers enjoy their work more than they should is perhaps the reason why stamps are one of few major businesses in the world dealing in so-called 'luxury' items on which such a small margin of profit is the normal operating procedure."

"If dealers throughout the world marked up their products on the basis of cost plus their labor in full, price levels would be immeasurably higher. It is a sheer devotion of the professional philatelist to stamps that has sustained commercial philately not only through the worst of times but on such a low percentage of profit on turnover."

"Stamp dealers are necessary, for without them there would truly be no stamp collecting as we know it for over a century — an active hobby with constant demand, and financially sound through good times and bad."

Speaking of Stamp Dealers

Perhaps there is no better time than right now to say that Blake Battles of Wooster, Ohio who is a user of liberal space in our columns was a visitor at our home this afternoon (March 22). Blake and his good wife are on their annual trip to Florida. They stop all along the way and buy stamps from anyone who has stamps to dispose of. Blake usually goes home from Florida with his car piled so full of cartons of stamps that there is little room for their own luggage.

Leaving our house they went south on Route 27 and plan to stop at the beautiful Citrus Tower which was opened last July and has been doing a great business ever since. The restaurant there is unsurpassed by any in Florida. This tower is the project that I recommended to our readers over a year ago. Several bought stock on my recommendation and many others even including Mrs. Battles now tell me they wish they had taken some. It is all sold however and altho not yet in operation for a year, it is doing well and will become a very fine investment.

The Battles' are planning to stop at St. Petersburg, Winter Haven, Kissimmee, Orlando and other points and promised to stop with us again on their way home. I sold Blake a lot of my stamps and he will stop and pick up some more on his way north.

"Now as I understand it this trouble all developed when you sat at your desk all night hinging stamps?"

South Australian Centenary Stamp

Australian Postmaster-General, C.W. Davidson, has announced that a 4-pence postage stamp, brown-red in color, will be issued on April 17 to commemorate the centenary of responsible government in South Australia. It will remain on sale at post offices for approximately one month.

The actual centenary will occur on April 22, 100 years after the first parliament under responsible government in South Australia had its first sitting. However, as this date in 1957 coincides with Easter Monday the earlier date of issue was selected.

It will be of the same size and format as the 4d Olympic Games stamp, and will be printed on unwatermarked paper and issued in sheets of 120. The design comprises a representation of the Coat of Arms of the State of South Australia and suitable commemorative inscriptions. It was the work of artist engravers of the Note Printing Branch, Commonwealth Bank of Australia, Melbourne, where the stamps are being printed.

Stationery, Stamp Issued By Norway

Postal stationery and a new Official stamp have been announced by Norway. All items are presently in use having been released without the formality of a first day of issue.

The Official is a 100 ore violet in the Coat of Arms design first used in 1955.

With King Haakon in the impressed stamp design are a double reply card each having a value of 250, and a single one of 350. Colors of the stamp on the former are green and the latter, red.

With a Posthorn design stamp is a 200 plus 50 in green and violet.

Two Official postal cards are now in use, a double reply of 250 and 250, and a 250 single. Both stamps are in green, they showing the coat of arms and "Off. Sak."

Warner To Talk To UN Club About UN Stamps

Back for a return speaking engagement before the United Nations Philatelic Society on May 8 is Frank Warner, New York dealer. The group is made up entirely of delegates and members of the United Nations organization.

Mr. Warner's talk will tell a dealer's experiences with UN stamps. Since these are probably the hottest philatelic material in the world today a good attendance is expected.

Dealer V. W. Rotnem Dies After Illness

Funeral services were held at Mabel, Minn. on March 13 for Victor W. Rotnem, 56, who died March 8 at Rochester, Minn. after a long illness.

Mr. Rotnem had been a stamp dealer since his school days. He formed the Rotnem Stamp Co. in 1920, and dealt in precanceled stamps as a means of financing his way through the University of Minnesota. In 1934, he founded the Fidelity Stamp Co., which he operated in Washington, D. C. until 1951, and then at Mabel, Minn. until his health failed in 1955.

He was a life member of the American Philatelic Society, and the Society of Philatelic Americans, and was member of nearly all of the other national stamp organizations.

CARI P. RUETH

By now all of you should have gotten your mint requirements of the Presidential series of regulars. The idea has been suggested often enough here.

Not too many of them are left for sale at face at the Philatelic Agency any more, and each week seems to see the deletion of another denomination or so. According to the current list you can still buy the 1c, 1 1/2c, 6c, 7c, 9c, 10c, 11c, 15c, 17c, 20c, and 25c. That's not many of an original 32 values ranging from 1/2c to 5c.

Also recently removed are the 4c and 10c horizontal coils and the 1 1/2c vertical. Soon to go is the FIPEX 11c souvenir sheet and on that the POD has given an ample warning of withdrawal. The latter would be a nice item for your personal mail especially where you have both domestic and foreign correspondents.

Newer collectors are probably not aware that the Post Office Department has an agency where current issues can be purchased at face plus certain return mailing charges. If they will send a stamped, addressed envelope with a request for the list to the Philatelic Agency, Post Office Department, Washington 25, D. C., one will be sent. It has directions for ordering.

1. What men were shown on the low and high values of the Presidentials?

2. What men are shown on the low and high values of the Liberties?

Correction Department—It concerns the remarks I made relative to the United Nations Air Letter in last week's Notes. The Air letter was actually issued on August 29, 1952. The revised Aerogramme, which is an air letter with the name changed to bring international uniformity of designation, had its first day on September 14, 1954.

The brochure mentioned does have an unusual presentation in that four pieces pictured have the rarely used wreath cancel.

The error is purely my own. It was another thing of a series on a bad day. I also forgot where I parked the car, and forgot an appointment with my wife. The following days have been better!

The good-humored fun printed here in connection with the Architects' stamp in the March 25 column has irked several of its stout champions. But don't point any fingers at me. I like both the color and design and have said so in print. So I'm on record.

And let's not be so het up that we can't appreciate a little fun. After all, things and people have to stand on their own when they are judged. I think the Architect commemo will do quite well in the Design Derby at the end of this year.

In a lighter vein, a reader suggests if you turn this item upside down it looks like a rocket-launching set-up.

I have further reports on the acceptance of the double-reply postal cards in foreign post offices. Harold C. Myhre of Madison, Wis. states that the postmaster at Auckland, New Zealand is willing that the return half of the card be sent but won't permit both halves attached to each other. Under those conditions, the pair lose a great deal of their effectiveness.

Oswin Neukirchner of Philadelphia has submitted a pair, still attached, one cancelled at Thalheim (Erzgebirge) in the Russian zone of Germany.

Fred Bauer of New York City really came up with some beauties. He had some of them cancelled on the first day of issue at NYC. Returned from Bethlehem, Switzerland with a pictorial Christmas cancellation is one. Another comes from Vienna, Austria with the special postmark (with flags) used at the time the campaign for funds to help the Hungarian refugees was on.

A third is cancelled at Christmas

Island. It apparently took some time to get there as the date on it is February 8, 1957.

The recent change in the manufacture of coil stamps in rolls of 500 at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing resulted in these unwinding left to right instead of right to left as they had for years and years. In a number of offices there are machines which affix such stamps to mail, and the switch-around upset the apple-cart.

Protests to Washington have caused some quick changing of equipment at the Bureau. The coils soon to come will again unwind from right to left as formerly.

Saw several pieces of literature of general interest in the most recent lists of the Superintendent of Documents. Both have philatelic tie-ins since stamps have been issued relating to them.

"150 Years of Service, 1807-1957, Sesquicentennial Celebration, Coast and Geodetic Survey" is a 32-page brochure illustrating activities of this service. It is illustrated and might be some of the pictures could be clipped for the album to place with the stamp and first day covers. It costs 30c—ask for Catalog No. C 4.2:SE 7.

Stamps have been issued for the Settlement of Jamestown some years ago and it's just possible the POD might relent and have one or more for this year's celebrations there. In any event there are two items which should appeal to the collector, or to the family which might take a vacation in the Jamestown, Va. area during the festivities this spring and summer. They are—

"New Discoveries at Jamestown" contains descriptive and informational material relating to new discoveries at Jamestown, site of the first successful English settlement in America. It has 99 pages, is illustrated and sells for 50c. Ask for Catalog No. I 29.21:J 23/2.

"Jamestown, Virginia, the Townsite and Its Story" has informational and descriptive material relating to Jamestown. Included are reproductions of paintings and photographs. It has 54 pages and illustrations and sells for 25c. Ask for Catalog No. I 29.58:2/2.

Mrs. T. W. Kethley of Decatur, Ga. is really sold on her mail carrier. And for that matter so are the rest of the people on his route. He apparently has gone out of his way on a number of occasions to give service over and above that required by the pay check.

He is J. C. Moody and he has an off-beat hobby. Mr. Moody collects at least one new item pertinent to the community of every town in the country—I mean he's attempting to do that. He puts such material in a scrapbook, geographically.

He has a fair start but he could certainly do with a little help I would imagine. In case any of you feel helpful, you can send items to him c/o Post Office, Decatur, Ga.

PMG Summerfield has named a "Stamp Advisory Committee" to advise the Post Office Department on any matters pertaining to the subject matter, design, production and issuance of postage stamps. On it are several men who are acquainted with art and the proper delineation of it. If unhindered by political pressure there is a possibility that we may get more quality into our designs. In any event such perceptive talent is at hand.

However, it remains to be seen what will come about if the committee is asked to pass on the merits of various proposals for stamps. That's a tough assignment. They will have to give evidence of good thinking, and will have to have the full, unswerving backing of the postal powers to keep our issues in a respectable category.

Things like the Poultry, Memorial Poppy, Old Man of the Mountain and the like will ruin the confidence of the public in the committee, where if they stay with commemorations of a national and international significance, they'll do more to gain respect for the POD than anything that bureau has done in years.

Prospectus Available For Perf Centennial

The official prospectus for the "U. S. Perforation Centennial, 1857-1957", to be celebrated July 1-31 at the National Philatelic Museum, Philadelphia, is now available. The Centennial, sponsored by the Three Cent 1851-57 Unit of The American Philatelic Society, will feature an exhibition, as well as convention sessions during the Fourth of July week-end, which will open the exhibition.

The prospectus is available from Milton Edelman, exhibition chairman, 4216 Lancaster Ave., Philadelphia 4, Pa.

The show will be non-competitive. However, each exhibitor will receive a handsome "Certificate of Participation" from the Museum.
Displays in all their collecting phases of the perforated issues of 1857-69 are desired—in commemoration of the issue marking the "Perforation Centennial".

Ample space will be provided for the stamps of the 1851-56 issues, Carriers, Locals, the 1853 Nesbit envelopes, and the postal history of the entire 1851-60 period. There will also be provisions for proofs and essays of the 1851 and 1857 issues, and outstanding entries of the stampless covers of the 1851-60 period. There will be a fee of $3 per frame.

In addition to the exhibition and convention, the museum will produce another of its outstanding bulletins, featuring the stamps of the period.

Wichita Ready For 1957 Precancel Show

Saturday and Sunday, April 13-14, will see the opening 1957 stamp exhibition in Kansas. Sponsored for the fourth year by the Kansas Precancel Society, it will open at St. Anthony's Recreation Center, 1206 E. Second St. in Wichita where it has been staged for the past two years.

Max Tillery, general chairman, extends an invitation to all stamp collectors. There is no admission charge.

In addition to the exhibition there will be auctions both afternoons with something over 100 lots each day.

John J. Herbst, society treasurer, reports there will be more dealers than ever having tables in the bourse well stocked with stamps and accessories. More than 20 dealers have already engaged space.

Special cacheted covers and seals are available from the show.
Single covers mailed with commemoratives, 15c each, or the set of two dates for 25c. Order from Jack Thiel, Box 1335, Wichita 1, also available at 10c each or set of

Hungarian Dealer
Among Refugees

The Sunday March 24 New York Times had a most interesting article about the 30,000 Hungarian Refugees which were repatriated in the United States. Of special interest are a few paragraphs about a former stamp dealer, Bela Feher, who with his wife Gizela and children Mikell 11, Veronica 9 and Chaba 2½, came with the "transplants."

Life had not been easy for Mr.
Feher in Communist Hungary. A small man with grayish hair and a warm smile, Mr. Feher was in the stamp business with a friend, Imre Rozsa. Mr. Rozsa (Robert Stamp Co., New York City) fled Hungary in 1947 and Mr. Feher carried on the business until 1949 when the Communists "nationalized" it.

Mr. Feher got a job as a bookkeeper. But when someone reported that he had said the Swiss made better watches than the Russians, he was discharged for an anti-Russian attitude. He went to work for a steel trust but was warned that he would lose this job if he kept sending his children to Sunday school.

When the Revolution came Mr.
Feher helped to pull down the statue of Stalin at Sopron. Then he and his family fled to Austria.

Once in America the Feher headed straight for Shirley, L. I., where their old friend Mr. Rozsa helped them to get started. The Patchogue Rotary Club paid the first month's rent on their house, others gave them clothing and furniture and Mr. Feher got a job at the Bluepoint Laundry in Patchogue.

The pay is only $45 a week but somehow Mr. Feher has put $200 in the bank.

He is hoping that he may make a tidy sum from a stamp rarity that he brought to this country.
This is a special issue printed by the Sopron revolutionary committee. The Russians seized the stamps before they could be distributed, but Mr. Feher has six copies of the proofs—overcharges on the one-million pengo red and the ten-million pengo green Hungarian stamps.

April 1st marks the completion of eighteen (18) years of consecutive production for ARTCRAFT ENGRAVINGS.
In all that time, special envelopes were created for each and every adhesive postage stamp the United States issued.
ARTCRAFT was first to announce envelopes for the United Nations and, since the first UN issues in 1951, has produced more designs for UN issues than any other maker. The popularity of ARTCRAFT ENGRAVINGS can well be measured by the quality of workmanship that goes into their making. Why not enjoy the best... like thousands of others do. Insist on ARTCRAFT ENGRAVINGS — none

Cacheted Cover And Seals For CPS BYPEX

Preparations for BYPEX, May 2 to 4, have now shifted to high gear. Officers of the Canadian Philatelic Society, Louis Lamouroux, president, Cyril Woodhead, both from Toronto, and A. H. Christensen of Montreal, met recently at the Chateau Laurier Hotel, Ottawa, with the BYPEX executive officers to review arrangements made to date for the 29th Annual Convention and Exhibition of the Canadian Philatelic Society.

This year's show will be held entirely within the confines of the Chateau Laurier Hotel in Ottawa.

The ballroom will be used for the Court of Nations — the unusual showing of stamps from 21 nations of the world. The competitive exhibitors will find their frames well placed in the large convention hall. Ample room for special meetings will be provided, as well as a large and comfortable lounge for visitors.

There will be two cacheted covers available at BYPEX. The first one will have the etching of the Peace Tower on a buff envelope. Price is — two covers, including postage, 35c.

The second cachet has a design prepared by Reginald H. Gollop of Ottawa. It consists of a picture of Colonel By, builder of the Rideau Canal, together with a modification of the 12c map stamp of the 1927 issue. This will be used on a piece of postal stationery with the 2c Queen impressed stamp.

Charges for the second cover — two for 35c. Orders for both may be sent to Mrs. W. R. Bernard, P. O. Box No. 128, Station "D", Ottawa, Canada.

The requests for the "Squared Circle" seals publicizing BYPEX have been so great that it has been necessary for the committee to order another printing. These sell at two sheets of six seals for 25c, but the sheets are to be imperforate this time. This has been done due to some complaint of the perforated seals breaking apart too easily. Orders for them can be sent to Mrs. W. R. Bernard, at the address above.

Glens Falls Club Invites Collectors

Sessions of the Glens Falls, N.Y. Stamp Club are held on every other Monday in the Glens Falls High School beginning at 8 p.m. These are always open to visitors.

Meetings of the club are under the sponsorship of the Adult Education Classes Department of the State of New York.

Further information can be gotten from Robert E. Cullen, 16 Chester St., Glens Falls, N. Y.

Prospectus For SPA Exhibition Is Ready

The free publicity labels for the SPA convention and exhibition in Long Beach, Calif. August 15-18 are just about exhausted as the result of a short news item in a recent edition of Linn's, advises Mrs. Emily Moorfield, general chairman.

Mrs. Moorfield felt the organizing committee had more than enough to fill requests from all sources, but states that replies from Linn's readers alone will seriously deplete the stock. All who requested them will be sent copies but on a rationed basis.

The prospectus for the convention and exhibition has been released and copies may be had from Mrs. Emily Moorfield, P.O. Box 3313, Long Beach 3, Calif. The show is being welcomed with keen interest in Southern California as it is the first national convention to be held in this locale for a number of years.

The event has the backing of the Federated Philatelic Clubs of Southern California which is spending nearly $4000 for new exhibition frames.

Advisory Unit To Pass On Stamps

The establishment of a seven member Stamp Advisory Committee to "advise the Post Office Department on any matters pertaining to the subject matter, design, production and issuance of postage stamps" has been announced by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield.

"It is my belief," Mr. Summerfield said, "that this Stamp Advisory Committee will be of great assistance to the Department in developing a long-range program for the issuance of well-designed postage stamps with the most appropriate and appealing themes."

"We think the appointment of this committee is a forward step of considerable significance in our philatelic program, representing as it does, an effort to give the citizens a voice in the selection of new stamps.

"We are indeed fortunate that the counsel of the committee members will be made available to us. An early meeting is planned," Mr. Summerfield concluded.

Members announced are: Franklin R. Bruns, Jr., curator, Division of Philately and Postal History, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C.; William H. Buckley, president, New York Art Directors' Club; Arnold Copeland, president, Westport Artists, Inc., Westport, Conn.; Sol Glass, president, Bureau Issues Association, Baltimore, Md.; H. L. Lindquist, chairman, National Federation of Stamp Clubs, New York, New York; Ervine Metzl, president, Society of Illustrators, New York, N. Y.; Abbott Washburn, deputy director,

United States Information Agency, Washington, D. C.

The British Royal family's well-publicized, but genuine love for postage stamps has given our hobby an inestimable amount of prestige over more than half a century. Who knows, if it hadn't been for the philatelic activities of the titled and the wealthy at the turn of the century, stamp collecting today might well be in the same class with cigar-band or matchbook-cover collecting. Lest the wrath of lovers of these fields descend upon us, we hasten to point out that they are by no means objectionable.

But stamp collecting has its worldwide ramifications, boasts millions of organized as well as unaffiliated "aficionados" and has its own press and literature, things most other hobbies lack. Now it is reported that both Prince Charles and Princess Anne are keenly interested in philately and they have been pictured in more than one British publication busily bent over their own albums. As a special treat, they are allowed, on occasion, to inspect portions of the fabulous Royal Collection at the Stamp Room of Buckingham Palace where the famed Sir John Wilson is in charge of a gigantic and priceless accumulation of material.

The collection was founded by King George V, great-grandfather of the royal children who was a dyed-in-the-wool philatelist who is said to have devoted some time of every day to his favorite hobby. His son, King George VI, continued to take an active interest and while the present Queen is apparently not quite as enthusiastic as her predecessors, she is known to have a definite grasp of the hobby's fundamentals.

The late President F. D. Roosevelt performed a similar service for stamp collecting in this country. Almost everyone knew that he collected and what had hitherto been regarded as a hobby for children and eccentrics by many, gradually became the nationally popular avocation that we know today. No longer do grown men furtively sneak into stamp shops and apologetically ask for certain items "for the boy".

To F. D. R. stamp collecting was a favorite form of relaxation. We doubt whether he can be regarded as a serious student of philately as King George V will always be remembered, but perhaps this was due to lack of time. But he did provide that touch of "respectability" which stamp collecting needed to be fully accepted in the United States.

Speaking of British royalty, one of the most interesting Queen Elizabeth items known, an imperforate pair of Newfoundland Scott No. 192, showing the sovereign as a little girl, is currently being offered in London's philatelic press at $126. Not a bad buy at that.

"W. E. Fynden", dean of the London stamp publications' tipsters, favors these British Colonials (Scott Nos.) for early rises in value in his most recent writings—

Mint or used: Australia No. 18, St. Kitts No. 99-104, Jamaica 150-1, and Canada E7 and E8. Used only: Barbados No. 227, Jamaica B1-3 and New Zealand E2. These are all excellent tips which we fully concur in, but we can't quite see Fynden's recommendation to buy Southern Rhodesia No. 32 mint.

Stanley C. Jersey of the Society of Australasian Specialists contributed this informative bit of postal history of the Gilbert & Ellice Islands to a recent issue of the London magazine "Stamp Collecting":

"A.P.O. 187, P.O. Box 10, of 1956

"The unique use of U. S. Army-Air Force postal facilities in the Gilbert Islands was an outstanding philatelic event in the Gilbert & Ellice Is. colony during 1956.

"Some time on or before April 27, 1956, the U.S. Postal Service was extended to Tarawa, Gilbert Islands, from Eniwetok Atoll, Marshall Islands. During April the U. S. Government sent a civilian construction crew with a work contract from Parry Island, Eniwetok Atoll, to build some installations on Tarawa. With the resulting increase in mail, it was necessary to expedite the postal service. Coverage of A.P.O. 187 was extended from Eniwetok

Atoll to Tarawa and P.O. Box 10 assigned to Tarawa, Gilbert Islands.

"This service expedited communications to and from the Gilbert Is. by bringing the mail to this area in a record five to six days. The usual mail going from Tarawa went by small ships to Ocean Island and from there it was transferred to ocean liners for Australia. At Sydney, Australia, it went in to regular airmail channels for transmission to the U.S.A. This combination surface and airmail to the States usually took five to six weeks.

"I learned of the existence of A.P.O. 187, P.O. Box 10, through a correspondent in the Gilbert Is. My curiosity aroused, I mailed an enquiry to the Postal Officer, Eniwetok Atoll. The following is an excerpt from the reply:—

"Please be advised that P. O. Box 10, A.P.O. 187, was used as a mailing address for personnel affiliated with the office of the Resident Commissioner, Gilbert and Ellice Islands Colony. Mail for this activity was transported via the Military Air Transportation Service from Eniwetok Atoll. The service started during the month of April and stopped in August. There are no records available to show the exact starting and closing date.

"The cover I have can only be identified as having used this service by the address, which specifically reads: P.O. Box 10, A.P.O. 187.

"Although this mail service was of short duration it is an important part of the postal history of the Colony."

Thank you, Mr. Jersey!

Papal States Postal History Recounted

A series of articles on the stamps and postal history of the Papal States has been made available as a "special project", in reprint form, by the Italian Philatelist. The articles originally ran serially in that magazine during 1956.

They deal with the philatelic aspects of the Papal, or Roman, States, from the time of the French Revolution to the Fall of Rome in 1870.

The first section of the reprint tells the story of the Napoleonic occupation period, the political divisions of the Roman States, its currency system and its political organization as these affected the mails.

The second section deals with the stamps. It goes into considerable detail on postal rates, how to identify the various reprints and how they came into existence, fractional stamps, etc.

"Postal History of the Papal States consists of 16 carefully mimeographed pages (on heavy mimeograph bond) enclosed within two bristol-board covers, all punched for three-ring binder and ready for use as a reference book.

Cost of the handbook is $1.50, postfree. It may be ordered from P. Ostrow, P. O. Box 57, Burlington, Vt.

Anthony Wayne In Exhibition Cachet

Only members will be permitted to enter displays in the annual exhibition of the Wayne Stamp Society of Detroit, Mich. but the public generally is most welcome to come and view the various displays and make the rounds of the dealers on the bourse.

The affair is to be staged in the Cannon Memorial Center, E. Warren and Cadieux Rds. in Detroit on April 27 and 28.

The society has prepared an attractive bi-colored cachet featuring a portrait of General Anthony Wayne. Covers will be mailed on April 27 only franked with commemorative stamps. They sell for 10c each, or 3 for 25c (no stamps) from Ward Alkema, 1151 Wayburn, Grosse Pointe 30, Mich.

Minkus Heads UJA Fund Drive In 1957

Jacques Minkus, of Minkus Publications, Inc., was reelected chairman of Stamp and Coin Division's drive for the United Jewish Appeal at a recent meeting. The group plans to honor Lucius Jackson, of the Stamp Wholesaler, for his many years of sympathetic interest and devoted support to the UJA cause, at its annual dinner on Wednesday, May 1, at the Biltmore Hotel.

At the organizational meeting, Kurt Weishaupt, last year's guest of honor, presented the annual chairman's award to Mr. Minkus for his leadership in the 1956 campaign.

MONK'S INTRODUCTION TO PHILATELY! At the recent ASDA Midwest Postage Stamp Show in the LaSalle Hotel, Chicago, TV personality Marlin Perkins of the city's Lincoln Park Zoo brought along Khosa, a vervet monkey of South Africa. Harry Thorsen, Jr., president of the International Scouts on Stamps Society, left, shows Mr. Perkins and Khosa a stamp which pictures a monkey. The album, which contained other stamps showing animals, birds and reptiles, was presented to Mr. Perkins with the compliments of the Chicago ASDA Chapter.

Wall Decoration Looks Like Stamp

Two hobbies provided James Brundish of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio with an unusual decoration for his home — stamp collecting and woodworking. The item shown herewith is not a stamp but an enlarged facsimile of one made from various woods.

The frame surrounding the "stamp" is of black walnut; the wood beneath the bust is oak; the frame is white maple; the laurel branches on each side of the bust are white holly. The bust itself is a plaster piece with an overlay of gold-leaf.

Mr. Brundish is a rather occupied man with many interests. His philately is general in nature ranging from the early issues of many nations including valuable covers. Other interests include books and letters, coins and gardening.

S. DENNERSTEIN
9032 Creston Ave., New York 55, N.Y.

March 21 was the day of issue of a set of four Vatican City issued to honor St. Domenico Savio. Two values show St. Domenico alone (4 and 25L.) while the other two picture him with his patron, St. John Bosco (6L. and 60L.). Covers for illustration were sent by Vittorio Le Bianco, New York City; Pierson Ostrow, Burlington, Vt.; E. Paginini, Rome, Italy and Soc. Fimes, Rome, Italy.

Boy Saint Is Honored

Pierson Ostrow

Vatican City honored a very small boy with a very big heart — and added a new portrait to the philatelic gallery—when it placed on sale a special set of stamps to commemorate the centenary of the death of St. Domenico Savio. It was placed on sale on March 21, and consists of four stamps, in two basic designs.

The 4 Lire brown and 25L. green show the boy Domenico. At the upper right is the legend "La Morte ma non Peccati" (Death without Sin), while at the bottom is the inscription "S. Domenico Savio, 10 Centenario della Morte" (St. Domenico Savio, 1st Centenary of his Death).

The 6L. rose-red and 60L. ultramarine show St. Domenico together with his sponsor, Don Bosco. This design bears no legend, and the inscription has been changed to read "Domenico Savio, Allievo Prediletto di Don Bosco" (Domenico Savio, Student-Protege of Don Bosco). The stamps were designed by Casimira Dabrowska and engraved by M. Columbat.

Domenico Savio was born at Riva, in Piedmont, on April 2, 1842. He showed such a marked desire for priesthood that he was referred to John Bosco, who was then in process of organizing his Turin center for neglected boys. Young Domenico fitted well into the project, and organized a "Company of the Immaculate Conception" which was later (1859) to blossom into Don Bosco's international Salesian Congregation.

The youngster, however, never lived to see the ultimate flowering of his efforts. Always in delicate health, he had been sent home to die in 1857. He passed away on March 9 of that year.

Pius X moved to beatify the boy in 1914, but met with obstinate opposition on the grounds of Domenico's immature age. It was not until 1950 that the beatification became fact, and the final canonization of Domenico Savio as a Catholic saint did not take place until 1954.

Difficult, Scarce And Rare Plate Blocks

This is what takes places where a specific number, in one or another position, becomes a black sheep in the particular set. Soon after the stamp comes out it becomes almost immediately apparent that one certain position, and sometimes a couple, are out of line in the quality of centering with the others. From years of experience I have noted again and again, that as time goes by fewer plate blocks of this particular number and position will be found in satisfactory centering. The natural tendency to pass them up because this is practically a new stamp contributes much towards making this a scarce block.

The more critical the average collector becomes, the more difficult these will be to supply in the future. Of course it is impossible to determine either the percentage or the number of good sheets that were printed, for the only thing we know is that this and that plate block is either unavailable as desired and when found it looks like an ugly duckling, out of line with the rest of the set.

A few of these, to cite examples in recent years, are 24446, upper right, of Colorado, of 1951; 24168 in lower right of Gompers, 1950; 21145, upper left of Poe, 1949; the lower right of 23846 and 23851 of the New York airmail of 1948; and 23338, lower left of Navy, of 1945. These are but a few of glaring examples of issues in recent years. There are many others like them.

At first these plate blocks become uncommon. That is to say here and there you will find them in the above named positions, but they will be poorly centered. Those collectors who are either uncompromising, or who do not know better, may pass them up. Later on they may not be found at all, even poorly centered. It is then that they become gradually scarcer, at which time the veteran collector would be most happy to find them in any kind of centering if they could be found at all.

Unless the number of impressions is unusually small, scarcity does not take place overnight. It is a situation that develops gradually. On one hand we find the stamps and plate numbers beginning with a fixed quantity, and gradually diminishing, either with use as postage or falling into the hands of collectors. On the other hand we find the group interested in plate blocks increasing in the course of years. This combination automatically sifts out those issues, numbers or positions, of which there is least available and which is insufficient to meet the growing demand of collectors.

When a certain issue becomes more difficult to find, the offer to acquire these is increased and invariably the once poorly centered block becomes more popular as the news spreads with more and more people searching for them. It is in a case like this that we suddenly find new scarce items.

In the last fifteen years plate blocks, especially in the matched sets, have become very popular and have since gained many thousands of new collectors all over the country. These new collectors have fortified the dikes in preventing many another stamp, or plate number from becoming too scarce by the very fact that all have been saving material that might otherwise have become scarce had they been used up for postage.

For another thing, the presence of so many collectors means the necessity of having so many more dealers. Dealers, on the other hand, differ from other collectors in that they properly find it necessary to stock themselves, not just for the present but for the future that lies ahead. If alert, this too prevents many plate numbers from becoming scarce.

Whether it pleases the collector, or whether it is desirable to have and find scarce plate numbers is not the question. The fact remains that now and then some do become more elusive and unobtainable.

As a rule, a scarce plate block would be one that in the first place would be obsolete and unavailable in any post office. Secondly as far as dealers are concerned some might have them, many others would not. In price they may range anywhere from $1 up, the emphasis being that if a collector, or dealer, would be willing to meet the seller's price for them, they could be obtained with not too great difficulty if the search would be consistent. A scarce plate block is more apt to be among the regular issues than among the commemoratives, mainly because fewer people collect the regular issues and fewer people pay attention to them. It does make it harder for these collectors to find them.

The rare plate numbers are mainly those which had a very small number of impressions. Often it is not even known for some time and then when discovered it may be too late. Then here and there you will find the few well seasoned collectors who maintain a never ceasing vigilance for the rare ones. It is plate blocks like these that will rise to fantastic prices, sometimes ranging into hundreds of dollars.

In the last Presidential series you have a few of these. In the 1c Washington numbers like 21864, with 2145 impressions, and 21868 with 7895 impressions. On the 20c Garfield there is 22176 with 2550 impressions. On the 3c Win the War there are a couple of really rare ones. They are 23195 and 23196, with 7800 impressions. These are rare plate blocks.

SHANGHAI ADVENTURE

Russian Officers Club out in the French Quarter.

Agrieving, Jimmy was ushered into quite a plush layout, almost austere, where hot tea was sipped from tall glasses. Recognizing his watchman friend, he was escorted to a corner table and there was spread before him not one selection of stamps but three and three keen Russkies each determined to make THE sale.

Again dispensing with fol-de-rols Jimmy soon learned the merchants had not the slightest idea of stamp values, probably didn't even have title to the merchandise, and all of them quite determined to conclude deals then and there. Jimmy sized the lots up, made a blanket offer for all three and after much haggling and much spiked tea, made a deal, again in at least going through the motions of jotting down

Far be it from us to criticize a good thing. Our agents in London and New York are constantly shipping wonderful buys made at auctions. Yes, many items do bring spectacular prices. Particularly if they are scarce and superb. Sure, we know you have some scarce and superb stamps too. If you do more power to our cash appraisal. But if you are like the rest of the world, you have a fine assemblage of singles and sets, plate blocks and ordinary blocks, sheets and covers. It doesn't seem fair that you may be penalized for lack of specialization. Not all of us accumulated United Nations miniature sheets and early Israel in quantity. Therefore when you sell you need the logical buyer. He is the one who can pay a fair price for all your stamps. We are in the cash market all year long. Our requirements cover the kind of stamps that you own. Ship everything here now for a cash appraisal. No charge or obligation of course.

a rough tab of what he was buying and agreeing to pay on delivery shipside.

Well, folks, that's about the end of the story, all except the haul Jimmy made. And, all except the very strong possibility there may, at some subsequent date, have been some collectors or dealers in the Shanghai area who may have wondered what could have become of their stamps. The morale of the oriental ports those days was not very high not even high enough for a floating body to stir up commotion. The ways of the "Heathen Chinese" in his own stomping ground, were more devious than ever.

A footnote to the affair is that Jimmy didn't loose out so far as his end of the deal was concerned. On the long haul home, between watches, then a thirty day trip from the Fairway Buoy, where the Yangtse pilots are dropped, to San Francisco Light Vessel, Jimmy had picked out what he wanted to keep, had the rest all lined out in neat stockbooks to be dispensed at a handsome turn-over along the Coast.

Should you ever see unused blocks and strips of first issue Hong Kong to 96c unhinged any place maybe Jimmy turned loose of 'em to make room for his other voluminous material. But it's doubtful if he has yet!

France Honors 4 Famous Citizens

France, On April 15, will issue another four notables to its Famous Men series. The men, along with a representation of their specialties, are to be seen in the designs, all conceived by different artists.

According to Gimbels Stamp Department these will include an 8 franc for Gaston Plante (1834-1889) electric battery inventor; 12fr Antoine Beclere (1856-1939) radiologist; 18fr Octave Terrillon (1844-1895) creator of surgical asepsis; 30fr Etienne Oehmichen (1884-1935) a helicopter pioneer.

For the first anniversary of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan a set of three was issued on March 23. The 2 1/2 annas deep red has a view of the Karnaphuly paper mill in East Pakistan. On the 3 1/2 ultramarine is a vase and plate with a leaf motif, while the 10 rupees green and orange pictures an orange tree bearing fruit.

Obscure Airmails Subject Of Articles

The current number of The Aero Philatelist Annals offers detailed, illustrated articles on stamp issues that have had little or nothing written about them in any English-language publication.

Fezzan, created out of the emergency of World War II, issued stamps for use of the French occupation. The story behind these provisional airmails is fully documented.

Also during the last World War, the remote province of Sinkiang in China had to issue special airmails because of the chaotic condition of the Chinese dollar. The story of this issue as well as a description and illustration of the later counterfeits is comprehensively outlined.

When Uruguay back in 1921 issued its first airmail stamps, a scarce variety was found—one sheet was discovered with a black, instead of blue, overprint. Similar in many respects to the famous inverted center 24c airmail of United States, a thorough study of this scarce variety has been written.

Finally editor Henry M. Goodkind in one of his editorials shows in a country-by-country analysis why airmail stamps have become the leading issues in general philately.

This number of The Aero Philatelist costs $1 and is available from Aero Philatelists, 22 E. 35th St., New York 16, N.Y.

A Classic Study In A Popular Field

"The Paid Markings on the 3c U.S. Stamp of 1861"

by George W. Linn

As the title indicates, this study is confined to one stamp, the 3c of 1861, and one type of cancellation, the word "PAID" with or without other ornamentation. In the more than 100 such marks, Mr. Linn presents 90, with their pedigrees and places of use, not previously recorded. So it can be seen that quite a bit of original research went into the writing.

The author has separated the PAID types into twelve different categories depending on their appearance. Each is illustrated, fully described, with the known towns of use listed.

An introductory chapter instructs the reader in an approach to the collecting of postmarks and printing terms and practices. With each book comes four sheets on which all the cancels are printed. These can be cut from the sheet and placed in the album with a cover or stamp as an illustration of the type which the item bears.

The following is quoted from the

ASHBROOK SPECIAL SERVICE

Bulletin of April 1, 1956

"A NEW BOOK — 3c 1861

A new booklet entitled, "The Paid Markings on the 3c U. S. Stamp of 1861" by George W. Linn, has just been received and it is a most welcome addition to my reference library. The author is the well-known editor of "Linn's Weekly Stamp News" and is one of our foremost elder collectors and philatelic students. I joined the A. P. S. in 1907 and my number is 2497. I note George was admitted just a short time previous as his A. P. S. number is 2452. George Linn knows American Philately from A to Z as well as the stamps of the world. He was in the printing business all his life, hence he not only knows how to write a book of this kind but how to have it illustrated, printed and bound. For some years he searched for every example he could locate of a 3c 1861 with a "PAID" cancellation. This is a most interesting study and I can recommend it in the highest terms. I do not know the price but write to George W. Linn, Howey in the Hills, Florida." Signed: Stanley B. Ashbrook.

THERE ARE 104 PAGES.

The Popular one is in Card Covers and comes postpaid.

NOTES

The new album pages being printed now are quite a help because the town names are printed in the spaces for the stamp and they are a checklist as well as an album all in one. I am informed that John Winn of Bolivar, Mo. is contemplating issuing a set of pages for Missouri, in fact I think they are on the press now. He says that there will be a pre-publication price that will make a saving for the collector. Write him for prices if interested.

Up to date Town lists are also quite a help to the Town collector. John Hirt of Box 401, Pawhuska, Okla. has just issued a completely new and revised list for the state of Kansas. He will send it to any collector for return postage only. No other charge.

NEW BUREAU ISSUES

As reported by George Klein new issue Bureau dealer. Only one Prexy this time a 1½c coil from Fort Lauderdale, Fla. This will be quite welcome to a lot of collectors who can at least get one Bureau now for their collection. (The 1c narrow Prexy sheet stamp is quite hard to get if you will remember).

All the following are Liberties. 1c sheet stamp Manchester, N.H. 4c and 50c sheets from New York City. 30c sheet from Memphis, Tenn. Memphis has a habit of turning out an item or two scarce in each Bureau issue and this just might be the one in the Liberty. 2c coil stamps from Redwood City, Calif. and New Orleans. 3c coil from Dayton, Ohio.

BULLETIN BOARD

The Kansas Precancel News for February mailed with a very beautiful 2c double line Liberty from Liberal, Kans. I believe this must be a type-set. . . The March issue of the Golden Gate Bulletin mailed with a 2c Liberty from San Carlos, Calif. The Bulletin reports that the California count is 624 Towns and 1061 Types. Colorado 178 Towns and 327 Types. . . It seems that it was just last week I reported about the Printed Dated News. Anyway I have the March issue. It's mailed with a pair of ½c Prexies (locals) and a 1c wide Prexy buro (Rockford, Ill.) dated "PDPN 3-57".

And now the March issue of "Collectors Items," bulletin of the Cedar Valley Stamp Club of Waterloo, Iowa. It was mailed with a 1c Prexy and a 1c Liberty from Reinbeck, Iowa. This is a general stamp club. Addresses of the above will be furnished for return postage.

BATTLESHIP REVENUE PRECANCELS

There were quite a few of these beautiful items issued during the short time this series was in use. Seldom did town names appear—generally a firm name. Various layouts were used and the printers seemed to try to outdo each other in creating appealing cancellations. Many are found in colored inks.

A list of these was compiled and printed in a philatelic journal some years ago and efforts are now under way, I am told by my good friend Harold Field of Charleston, Va., to print this list in booklet form. This will be used as a basis for further and more complete ones in the future. Quite an undertaking, and it is my hope that eventually a catalog can be issued that will quote prices and level off some of the fantastic antics when some of these are offered for sale.

Some are quite scarce it is true, some are in the medium class, and some are common. Which are which is now quite a mystery to all but a few and this often leads to a lot of funny business.

Reprints Of 19th Century Postal Adhesive Stamps

This work, the great E. D. Bacon classic, is one of the most sought-after books of our time. It runs 166 pages of text, from Afghanistan through Zurich and has some 425 illustrations. Originally published at the turn of the century, it contains full descriptions of all then-known reprints of all 19th century stamps, common and rare. No need to tell you how they plague collectors today! Famous in collecting circles, it has long been out-of-print and used copies have brought fancy prices at recent literature sales.

Brand new copies of a second, limited edition, 5 x 7 inches in size, bound in tan twill and identical with original except that the U. S. illustrations have been vastly improved, are now available. Indexed. $2.85 postpaid. (Ohio customers, add 3% Sales Tax).

The Lindner Co., 15 Mechanic St., Freehold, N.J. is announcing a list of supplements available for its Hingeless Albums. These cover the full albums already produced by the company and provide spaces for last year's issues. Stamps are held on the album page behind clear plastic windows into which the stamps are easily inserted.

Now in a new store where they welcome walk-in trade is Riviera Stamps, 207 W. Victoria St., Santa Barbara, Calif. Owner Ed Chalfant advises that a full line of philatelic supplies and accessories are stocked besides a plentiful supply of old and new issues of the world excepting the iron curtain countries. Mail orders welcomed.

Ross Harvey and Dick Begola of the Crossroads Stamp Store announce their new location at 168 W. 46th St. at Broadway, New York City. There is a complete stock of philatelic accessories and other items on display at all times including counter boxes featuring packets, covers, souvenir sheets and odd pieces. Hours 9:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. daily.

Amy Ellen Davis is announcing a change of address effective immediately. It is now at 5801 N. Major Ave., Chicago 30, Ill. Mrs. Davis is one of the foremost dealers in seals, labels and poster stamps in the United States. She stocks the common and scarce material of all nations and is in a position to handle want lists.

Paul Ledermann, 33-25 81st St., Jackson Heights 72, N.Y. announces that a new wholesale catalog is ready for dealers who will apply for it on their business stationery. Offered are mint and used new issues of the world per ten and hundred, nations of the British Commonwealth, and packets from all around the world in various sizes.

A new location has been taken by the Star Stamp Co. which involved a move around the corner onto Fifth Ave. The new address is Suite 602, 505 Fifth Ave., New York 17, N.Y. The new space is more comfortable, spacious and air-conditioned. The firm specializes in the British Empire issues and holds auctions at frequent intervals.

Most collectors have duplicates of one kind or another for which they haven't too much use for their collections. Extra copies of United Nations stamps can be swapped with John Daly, 2606 Depew Dr., Pontiac, Mich. for others they might need. Each stamp has a point value which is used in determining its swap value. See the ad this edition.

A bulletin devoted to United States stamps is produced monthly by M.E. Grebel, Inc., 116 Nassau St., New York 38, N.Y. It is sent for 10c the single copy or can be subscribed at $1 per year. The current edition for April has a number of seemingly good buys in the bargain section. Sample offerings are to be found in an ad this edition of Linn's.

A supplement to their original Catalog for the Stamps of Switzerland is announced by the Amateur Collector Ltd., 27 Westbury Rd., Woodside Park, London N. 12, England. It includes all the issues of 1956 including the ones for the world organizations located in the country. There are a number of price alterations of all issues given.
